Targets for the Spirit's Work

Dear Friends in Christ,

After Jesus ascended to heaven, he promised another counselor would come to fill the role of God's close proximity presence for people in the kingdom of God. That happened on Pentecost, celebrated on Sunday, June 8th.

Appropriately, the next festival of the church year is Holy Trinity Sunday, June 15th. We honor the Father, Son and Holy Spirit on this one occasion by reciting the very complete confession of the Athanasian Creed. Sharing June 15th honors with the triune God are all the fathers, since it is also Father's Day. How fitting to honor the first person of the trinity, God the father, as we honor all the others. Let us always remember that we have a father in heaven as well as the earthly family God placed us into. Sunshine and long hours of daylight mark June as a special month for us when many things draw our attention. Those earthly things may distract us from our faithfulness to God. He calls us to faithfully worship him every Sunday, to pray and consider our baptismal gifts each day, and to live every moment giving God the glory. May we be faithful stewards of his love by giving a tithe, sharing the good news of salvation, and serving the Lord with gladness! The Holy Spirit dwells within us, encouraging all of these things of God. He also reminds us to live each day mindful that

"Jesus has risen! He is risen indeed, alleluia!"
Amen.

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Glenn

"And in the last days it shall be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams;" (Acts 2:17, ESV)

Pastor's New Schedule: Friday's off

Pastor Glenn has a new schedule of taking his weekday off on Friday rather than Monday. We give him 2 official days off in the week to so that he can rest from the stress of caring for the people of God, though many Saturdays are full of work along with Friday. Still, we appreciate confining non-urgent church business to regular working days. As always, call him any time with emergency situations. Otherwise, he'll feel guilty that he couldn't act to care for you.

New Sunday Morning Bible Class Coming: The Story of Angels

A new Sunday Bible Class will begin June 1 on the topic: The Story of Angels. We'll explore the creation of angels, their work and their attributes. Do come when you can. Opening for the group is at 9:15 and class starts up with hot coffee provided about 9:25 am.

For those of you that are curious and missed the lecture, we have a DVD video that you can borrow. The bible verses are quite enlightening to open up our blindness to the devils power to delude us. Just see Pastor Glenn. Angels, demons... exorcisms and the occult...Are these things found in Scripture? Is this stuff only in movies or on TV—or is it real? What happens at exorcisms? Special thanks for the presentation by Rev. Christian C. Tiews, Grace Lutheran Church, Tulsa, Oklahoma, plus Clayton and Brent for stories of demons attacking their families.

Father's Eyes

Jonathan's mother died when he was very young and his father brought him up. Both of them shared a very special relationship. Jonathan loved to play football and his father made sure that he was always there to cheer his son at every match, even if Jonathan wasn't a part of the playing team. Jonathan being small sized, wasn't allowed to play in the main team. Nevertheless, he continued with his practice with full determination. Everyone thought that Jonathan would never be able to make it into the team, though somehow, his determination carried him through. The coach seeing his diligence and dedication decided to keep him on the roster.

One day during practice, the coach met him with a telegram. Jonathan was shocked to read the message contained in it. Swallowing hard, he mumbled to the coach, "My father died this morning. Will it be all right if I miss practice today?" The coach gently put his arm around his shoulder and said, "Take the rest of the week off, son, and don't even plan to come to the game on Saturday." On the day of the game, Jonathan's college team was losing badly to the rival team. The coach and the players had all lost hope when they saw Jonathan coming towards them. Jonathan ran up to the coach and pleaded him to allow him to play this match. At first, the coach wouldn't allow him to play. However after a lot of persuasion, the coach gave in. No sooner had Jonathan joined the team in the field, their scores started to improve. Before both the teams were in a tie.

However, the real cheer came during the crucial closing seconds when he intercepted a pass and ran all the way for the winning touchdown. His team members were ecstatic. The crowd came running towards him to celebrate the win. After the match, the coach went up to Jonathan, who was seated alone in the corner of the locker room and asked, "Kid, I can't believe it. You were fantastic! Tell me what got into you? How did you do it?" He looked at the coach, with tears in his eyes, and said, "Well, you knew my dad died, but did you know that my dad was blind?" The young man swallowed hard and forced a smile, "Dad came to all my games, but today was the first time he could see me play, and I wanted to show him I could do it!"

Marriage Builder - 5 Virtues of Marital Vision

One of the most profound things that has impacted Jimmy and Karen's marriage is the idea of taking a vision retreat every year. It's a time when Karen and I get away together for several days to talk, pray, and just enjoy each other's company.

During this time, we communicate about children, finances, schedule, sex, everything. We focus on God's purpose for our marriage. A vision retreat helps us rediscover and recommit to this every year. Here are five virtues of vision:

- 1. Clarity: How can you be successful if you don't know what you're trying to accomplish? God never creates anything to operate in confusion, so He will speak to you and show you His purpose for both of you if you'll let Him.
- 2. Energy: Habakkuk 2:2 says, "Then the Lord answered me and said, write the vision and make it plain on tablets that he may run who reads it." It's hard to get excited about something that's poorly defined. When you give definition to a vision, it creates passion, energy, and excitement.

3. Purity: Without vision, people cast off restraint (Proverbs 29:18). They live in sin. When you don't have a vision, you let negative thoughts guide you because you don't know what you're supposed to do.

Before I had a vision for my life, I was just trying not to mess up or fail in my marriage. My focus was on what I shouldn't do rather than on what I should be doing. Now I know what I need to do: to serve Karen, to love her, to meet her needs, to trust God, to make a difference in other people's lives. I have a purity of purpose.

4. Unity: The word division means "two visions." In marriage, we fight because we don't see eye to eye. One of us looks in one direction and one is looking in another direction. Our heads are turned opposite ways. Only if we have a single vision will we be looking and walking together. In Luke 11:17, Jesus said "A house divided against itself will fall." You cannot succeed when you have division in marriage.

5. Victory: Again, Proverbs 29:18 says, "Where there is no revelation, people cast off restraint; but blessed is the one who heeds wisdom's instruction." Blessing, success, and victory arrive when we have vision, or revelation, for our lives and marriage. We must understand that God's purpose for us is relationship.

All of these things—clarity, energy, purity, unity, and victory—can result from a marriage vision retreat. This annual practice will transform your marriage.

Here are the rules: Once every year, get away for three to five days without the kids. Go camping. Go to a resort. Go anywhere you won't be distracted.

Spend half of each day praying and talking, and half of each day having fun together. Discuss the big issues between you. Be open about the things you each need to improve on, but also be sure to praise each other, too.

Most importantly, spend the time surrendering your marriage to God. On any issue, it's not about winning, but about surrendering.

Do this every year, and your marriage cannot help but grow stronger. Rediscover and recommit to God's vision for you. You'll become two people with a single focus, walking together in agreement.
